WELCOME TO EUGENE!

The Eugene Police Department welcomes students to the community. Over the past several years partnerships have been formed between many agencies and organizations to provide a safe, positive living environment for students residing in Eugene, especially in the University of Oregon campus area.

In past years, many parties hosted in and around the campus area have resulted in complaints from neighbors and required police response. Some significant problems have included street parties involving intoxicated individuals, assaults resulting in injuries to students and police officers, damage to public and private property, and noise disturbances involving yelling and/or loud music.

Eugene Police maintain a visible presence in the campus area to conduct education, intervention and enforcement. Individuals violating ordinances or state law are subject to citation, physical arrest, and/or civil fines. Alcohol and noise violations are chronic issues and are specifically targeted.

Some of the most frequently violated ordinances and laws are summarized on the back of this brochure. We hope this information will help you make responsible choices about partying in Eugene.

PARTY MANAGEMENT TIPS

- ♦ Respect your neighbors. Find ways to celebrate that do not infringe upon your neighbors and that are alcohol-free.
- ♦ Control the guest list. “Come one, come all” parties usually result in police contact. Have a door monitor to screen guests. Don’t let random people who are walking around looking for a party into your house.
- ♦ Adults only. If you choose to serve alcohol, ensure that you only serve to persons 21 years of age or older.
- ♦ Plan ahead. Notify neighbors well in advance of the date, times and location of the party. Give them a telephone number and the name of the person to contact if there is a problem (and be responsive to their calls!).
- ♦ Monitor noise levels. Keep doors and windows closed to reduce outside noise levels.
- ♦ Discourage drinking games. Have a non-drinking person serving alcohol and don’t let people carry alcoholic beverages outside of your party.
- ♦ Clean it up. Your neighbors may be more tolerant of your next party if you clean up promptly after this one. Clean up debris from your yard or the street.
- ♦ Safety first. If you are concerned for a friend’s medical safety—such as suspected alcohol poisoning—call 9-1-1 immediately.
- ♦ Prevent drunk driving. Arrange for transportation by a designated driver before anyone drinks. Make sure arrangements are understood by everyone. Ensure people don’t drive under the influence (a person riding a bicycle under the influence also may be arrested for DUII). As the party host, you are also liable.

POLICE INTERVENTION

- ♦ If your party gets out of hand, call the police. We will come out and help you regain control.
- ♦ Respond positively if a police officer comes to your house. The officer most likely is responding to a complaint. Make sure the person interacting with police officers at the front door is sober and able to be responsive to officers’ requests.
- ♦ Interfering with police officers makes a bad situation worse. Use common sense and be cooperative.
- ♦ When a police officer asks you to clear an area, leave right away. If you stick around to see what’s happening, you may be in a situation where you are interfering with a police officer. If police warn that they are going to use tear gas, you need to quickly get as far away as you can.

PERSONAL SECURITY

Whenever possible, travel in groups of two or more, especially when attending parties where alcohol is served. At night, park in well-lit parking areas close to your destination. Always lock your car or bike. Never leave valuables in your car.
